Nodal Officers such as D.D.Os have to deduct c.p.s. contributions from monthly pay bills of employees. The Treasury Offices ( D.T.O.s / S.T.O.s) have to upload the c.p.s. contributions to the C.R.A. i.e. N.s.D.L. and correspondent amounts have to be transferred to Trustee Bank i.e. the Bank of India. From the Pension Trust, the funds transferred to the Pension Fund Managers for investing the funds in various schemes.

3. In accordance with the norms of the Central Record Keeping Agency i.e. National Securities Depository Limited (NSDL), the Employees and all the Nodal Officers of the State, who have to make transactions of c.P.S., are necessarily be registered with N.5.D.L. by submitting relevant forms. So far 1,29,000 employees were registered with the N.5.D.L. by submitting for S.I to the ,N.5.D.L. The Treasury Officers are uploading the contributions to the individual accounts of the employees.

4. The Executive Vice President, N.5.D.L., Mumbai, in the reference 3rd cited has requested to issue procedural instructions for implementation of N.P.s. for State Autonomous Bodies (SABs) and consider for appointing a single department or an office which will serve as an oversight office for all the SABs of the State for providing the necessary guidance and support during the registration, contribution upload and fund transfer towards successful implementation of N.P.S. The oversight office may thus serve the dual function of monitoring and necessary handholding on the policy front. Further the N S D L has assured the State Government to assist further in formulation of implementation/operational guidelines and also in deciding important aspects related to model for transfer of contribution information and funds as well as billing modalities related to CRA service charges.

The D.T.A. will function as facilitator for this. After this, each D.D.O. under the treasury has to be registered even though the D.D.O. and D.T.O. could be the same. The N S D L architecture will allow this scenario. After this the individual employee has to be registered with the N S D L in form No. S 1 by the respective D.D.O.s. Since this is a new scheme, the Offices of above organizations do not have the necessary expertise to migrate to this scheme and involves a lot of it implementation. So, all the District Treasury / Sub-Treasuries shall be instructed to give adequate support in filling of the form and operating the scheme. It is also necessary that the District Treasury / Sub-Treasuries shall guide all concerned about the upload of files and payment through RTGS. After obtaining the necessary registrations with NSDL the employees of State Autonomous bodies are eligible for applying PRAN Numbers from N S D L by submitting the S 1 Forms through their organizations.

7. Therefore, Government after careful consideration of the matter hereby direct all the Heads of Departments / Heads of State Autonomous Bodies / all the Executive Officers of Rural and Urban Local Bodies such as the Gram Panchayats, Mandai Parishads, Zilla Parishads, Municipalities, Municipal Corporations, Urban Development Authorities, Cooperative and Urban Local Bodies, Zilla Grandhalaya Samsthas, Agriculture Marketing Committees, including all the Universities in the State, including all the institutions functioning under the Universities, who pay and allowances are drawn from the Condolidate Fund of the State or not for implementation of the New Contributory Pension Scheme in respect of employees who were recruited on or after 01.09.2004 in their organizations and get registered their D.D.O.s and Officers concerned with the NSDL by submitting relevant forms such as N2, N3, NS and N6 and form S 1 for the subscribers. The Director of Treasuries and Accounts, Deputy Directors of District Treasuries and all Treasury Officers in the State shall provide the necessary guidance and support during the registration, contribution upload and fund transfer towards successful implementation of NPS and extend their cooperation to the officers of said organizations for implementation of NPS.
